~ Birth story ~

Once upon a time, deep in a big forest,
there was an area of many trees with a variety of fruits.

The forest was like a paradise for fruits.
And, all of the fruits were very fresh and juicy.

They grew well.

The Spirit of the fruit-forest shared its produce with hungry animals and insects seeking food.

But, a crow called “Gaaga” found this forest, and he had greedily eaten many of the fruits.

So many fruit trees started to wither.

The Spirit of the fruit-forest thought to herself, “I have to deal with this problem. Otherwise, the fruit-forest shall end soon.”

Because of that, the Spirit of the fruit-forest thought very hard.

The Spirit created Fruit Turtle Power Rangers
to protect the forest.

Their name is “Fruitskamen family”.

The Fruitskamen family consists of Mikankamen, a turtle in the shape of a mandarin, Ringokamen, a turtle in the shape of an apple, Melonkamen, a turtle in the shape of a melon, Suikakamen, a turtle
in the shape of a watermelon, Kiwikamen, a turtle in the shape of a kiwifruit, and Lemonkamen, a turtle in the shape of a lemon.

The Fruitskamen family members have original skills different from each other. So, some in the Fruitskamen family are strong but all of them aren't. However, they can drive away their enemies by their teamwork. Furthermore, the Spirit gave "magical force of the charm" to each turtle.

The Spirit thought that even if they had fights, they would not repeat the same mistake again with a little happiness through receiving "magical force of the charm".

And the Spirit thought that the "magical force of the charm" would make insects and animals looking for foods in the forest happy, too. As a result, the Spirit thought that the "magical force of the charm" would bring peace to the forest.

Well, Gaaga, the crow was eating away the fruits again.

“Gahgahgah, what yummy fruits in this forest they are! Get out of my way! All of the fruits in this forest are mine!”

He scattered the hungry animals
visiting the forest looking for food.
And, Gaaga was robbing their fruits.
